Meeting your training needs

MACCE Customized Training is a convenient, cost-effective tool to help you identify your specific needs and meet your business objectives.

To help you reach your goals, we...

- Learn about your issues, needs and business objectives.
- Work with your leadership team to assess requirements, evaluate current skills and develop targeted training.
- Design and provide training using experienced industry professionals.
- Measure the effectiveness of the training so you can be assured of a healthy return on your investment.

Productivity is our business

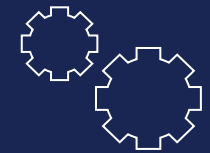

In today's competitive environment, one of your primary advantages is a highly trained and skilled workforce. To maintain your edge and grow your business, you need to be sure your workers are updating and developing their skills to assure continuous improvement.

The power of partnership

The Metro Alliance for Customized & Continuing Education is a partnership of the Customized Training divisions of the ten metropolitan area community and technical colleges. We connect you with the expertise and resources of all of the metro colleges when you work with any one of us.
